Dear Parents and Carers,

Chestnut Class and Willow Class are very excited to be performing 'The Angel Who Nearly Missed it All' Christmas Production.

The performances will take place on the following days and times in the school hall:

- Tuesday 8th December at 1.30pm
- Wednesday 9th December at 9.30am

Parents and other family members are warmly invited to watch the performance. Due to limited space, attendance is restricted to two guests per family, per performance. To help us manage this and ensure everyone can enjoy the performance comfortably, we will be checking guest names against our children's names on the door.For health and safety reasons and to comply with fire regulations, pushchairs cannot be brought into the hall. We would also kindly ask that, where possible, younger siblings are left at home, as they can find it difficult to sit through the show. Thank you for your understanding and support.
The PTA will be providing refreshments for small donations. These can be purchased with cash or vai contactless.

Children in years 1 and 2 will be coming home today with some lines to learn and practise with you. Please help them say their words loudly, slowly and clearly. Costume details will be included. Year R communication will follow next week.
Please can your child's costume be labelled and placed in a named carrier bag and brought in to school betweeen Monday 23rd and Friday 27th November to allow for our dress rehearsals.

Thank you for your continued support and we hope you enjoy the performance! If you have any queries about the production, please contact the School Office or speak to your child's Class Teacher.

Kind regards

Mrs Jessica Gengan and
Mrs Kelly-Anne Sweetnam
